FANEUIL HALL'S GRASSHOPPER WEATHER VANE

Made by Deacon Shem Drowne — 1742

Many reasons have been given for the Grasshopper.

One is that it is an ancient Egyptian symbol of an agriculturist.

Another is that it was on the Faneuil Coat of Arms.

This has been proven false.

I, myself, prefer the following story:

In the year, 1519, a group of children were in a field outside of London chasing grasshoppers when they came upon an abandoned baby lying in the grass. They took the baby to a rectory for shelter. The baby's name was Thomas Gresham. He grew up to be Sir Thomas Gresham, financial advisor to Queen Elizabeth and founder of the Bank of England. When he built the Royal Exchange he put an eighty-four inch grasshopper on top to commemorate the grasshopper's part in his life.

Over two-hundred years later Peter Faneuil, who gave the market to Boston, was a member of the Royal Exchange. Because he was fascinated with the grasshopper's story, he had one designed for Faneuil Hall.

HISTORY OF ANCIENTS
ANCIENT and HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY OF MASSACHUSETTS

Chartered in 1638
The First Military Company Chartered in the Western Hemisphere

As the settlements which followed the landing at Plymouth increased and spread there was no organized military force for protection against the Indians. So-called "Train Bands" were formed in different settlements but these were only local volunteer companies and there was no joint action or centralized authority. Thus the subject of adequate military protection soon became a matter of serious consideration. Many of the settlers had been members in England, of the Honourable Artillery Company at London (organized and chartered in 1537) and its was natural that the military training they had received in that Company should lead them to form a similar organization in the new country. In 1637 a Company was formed for instruction in discipline and tactics, and that year Governor Winthrop was petitioned for a Charter. He refused the request because he feared the establishment of a military force which might overthrow the civil power. However, the Governor finally granted a Charter in March, 1638, and on the first Monday in June following, an election of Officers was held on Boston Common. The Common then being an open field leading down to the Charles River, the most convenient place to cast the ballots was on the head of the drum, which was placed in front of the Company. Since that time, the Company has maintained the tradition of its annual elections on Boston Common on the first Monday in June by casting the votes on the Drum Head.

The first Captain commanding the Company was Robert Keayne, whose home was on the corner of State and Washington Streets. Keayne had been a member of The Honourable Artillery Company of London. Upon his death, he left in his will to the Town of Boston the land at the head of State Street for a Town House together with money to build it providing, however, that "the Military Company of Massachusetts" should have a room in the Town House for an Armory. This is the land on which the old State House now stands the gift of which was accepted by the Town of Boston.

Since 1746, the Company Armory has been the upper floor of Faneuil Hall - an historic citadel known to all Americans.

In its Armory, the Company maintains a Military Museum and Library which is without equal in the United States. Here are relics of every war in which this Country has engaged since its settlement. Many of these are Museum pieces and have been on display at various times in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. On the risers of the thirteen steps which lead up to the Headquarters room of the Company are commemorated in bronze plates, the names of the thirteen States in the order in which they accepted the Constitution and their respective state flag is placed on each step. Around the walls of the Armory are the portraits of most of the Captains who have commanded the Company since 1638 to the present day. The Armory is open to the public daily, and many thousands of visitors from every part of the country and many from abroad, are registered every year in the Guest Book.

The position of the members of the Company in the social, civil and military life of the Colony indicates the respect which people entertained for the Company as well as the ability and prominence of its members. They were first in organizing churches and supporting them, they were prominent in framing and also in administering the laws of the Colony; they were foremost in the introduction of manufacturing and the extension of trade in Boston. They were the chief military minds of the Colony and among the first in its defense. Many of them were public benefactors, contributing somewhat of their wealth to education, religion and charity.

The members of the Company trod the fields of every battlefield of New England; they fought for freedom on foreign soil; they judged the courts; they pleaded at the bar; they instituted town government and levelled forests; were active in settling the towns of the frontier. Nine-tenths of the Company were loyal to the Colonies in the Revolution, and by their experience in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company they served on every battlefield where the banner of Massachusetts waved, from Bunker Hill and Bennington, through Valley Forge to Yorktown.

This is the Company that Washington knew, that Franklin saw march through the streets of Boston, that John Adams and John Quincy Adams visited; that has had four members who received our nation's highest military decoration - the Medal of Honor - and has had four of its members serve in the world's most important office, President of the United States, Presidents James Monroe, Chester Alan Arthur, Calvin Coolidge and John F. Kennedy; the same Company which has always stood for, and always will stand for, the best in citizenship.

Dear Friends:

It is a privilege and a pleasure again this year to extend my greetings and best wishes to the members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts as you celebrate your three hundred forty-second year.

As our nation's first chartered Military Company, you represent the best of America's heritage, and reflect the pride of our commitment to freedom and good citizenship.

Your Company is not only the pride of the Commonwealth -- it is the pride our entire nation, and I wish you a very happy 342nd birthday!

Sincerely,

Edward M. Kennedy

Gentlemen:

It is a pleasure to express my warmest regards to The Sergeants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, the First Military Company chartered in the Western Hemisphere.

I welcome this opportunity, on behalf of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to applaud the remarkable commitment of the Sergeants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, to the principles of our democratic heritage.

Congratulations upon your 342nd year anniversary celebration. I wish you continued success.

Sincerely,

Edward J. King

The Sergeants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts

With the passage of another year, it is appropriate to reflect upon our joys and our sorrows, our successes and our failures, what we have accomplished, what we yet aspire to, the blessings, we have received.

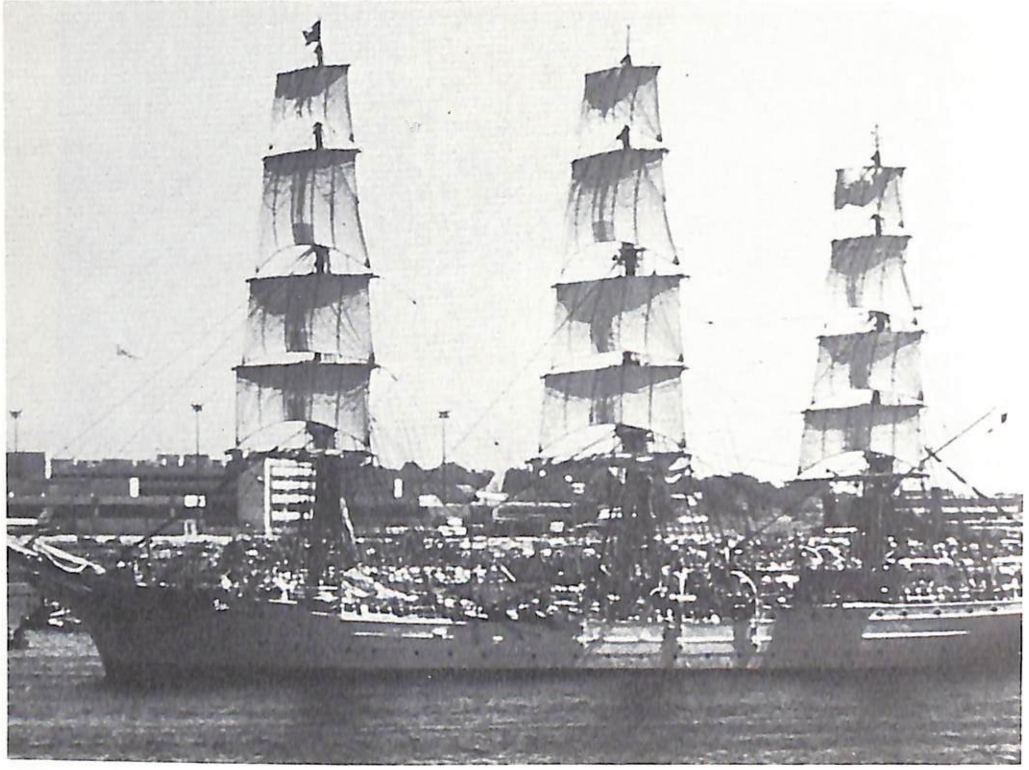
As the first military company chartered in the Western Hemisphere, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts is by tradition the foremost symbol of our ready defense and one of our most esteemed institutions. Its history and that of our nation are very much intertwined and because of its great historic significance, it is important that the Company's events and activities of each succeeding year be chronicled and archived for future generations.

For the Ancient's Sergeants this Year Book will help capture and preserve the spirit of 1979-80. Through it you will remember those you have lost from your ranks and those cherished moments of commradry, ceremony and fealty to purpose that have made the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company the enduring military corps that it is.

I commend each of you for your personal contributions to the enhancement of the Company. I congratulate you on another successful year and wish you all a coming year of abundant prosperity.

Sincerely,

Kevin H. White
Mayor



We Sergeants 1979-80 dedicate our yearbook to the City of Boston which is about to commence the celebration of the 350th anniversary of her founding. As Ancients we share in her glorious past and hope to continue to be an integral part of her future.

TWO DECADES

Among other things, the Sixties saw John Kennedy elected President and, three years later, witnessed his assassination. The Vietnam War was escalated and the decade closed with the first man on the moon. The Seventies opened with Peace in Vietnam and continued with Watergate, gas shortages and inflation.

1960

And twenty years ago, the J. Barry Driscoll Insurance Agency was founded. In the past two decades of this hectic world, we hope we have provided at least a small amount of stability and peace of mind for our clients.

We have built our professional reputation by anticipating our client's needs and being there before the need arises, thus helping to provide a certain amount of security in this insecure world.

We look on our past with pride and to the future with a determination to provide our clients with the most practical and effective portfolio of protection.

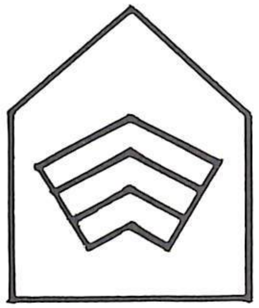
"YOU'RE NOT AN ANCIENT UNTIL YOU'VE . . ."

by Major Jack Drummey, First Sergeant 1972–1973
Former Chairman Military Museum and Library Committee

The well-known phrase, "You're not an Ancient until you've been a Sergeant" is, of course, an exaggeration: but, as with many hyperboles, in it there rings some truth.



The Sergeants ARE the backbone of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Co. of Massachusetts. They are "on duty" during most of their twelve months . . . more so than most members realize.

Since the chartering of the Company we have had Sergeants holding office. Six Infantry and six Artillery elected by the membership.

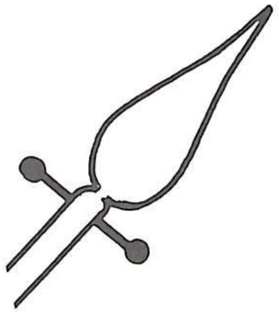
In March of each year the call goes out for those who wish to submit their names for this coveted office. Any member is eligible to run who has been in the Company two or more years. Realistically, there should be a thorough briefing of the candidates to strongly impress upon them the rigors and responsibilities of this position. It is no place for a man who just wants to be recognized.

The Sergeants are elected in May along with other Officers and assume their first assignment on June Day. Last in the Parade leaving Faneuil Hall, they take their Espontoons on the Common and lead their units to the Copley Plaza. Prior to the June Day Banquet they provide hospitality and entertainment and have "open house" afterwards.

Meeting as a body, they elect their own officers. The First Sergeant of Infantry is the "First Sergeant" and is customarily President.The First Sergeant of Artillery is usually elected Vice President. A Secretary may or may not be elected, but a very key position is Treasurer. He runs the "books." The Sergeants traditionally make a financial contribution to provide an initial operating budget.

The Sergeants have a definite social calendar which includes a Summer Outing, a Bon Voyage Party prior to the Fall Field Tour, a Christmas Party, a Winter Party, and a Farewell Party in May, where they make a gift to the members and guests attending.

In addition, the Sergeants run at least two parties during the Fall Field Tour, including giving commemorative gifts, and act as hosts on the train going to the "Old Guard Ball" in New York City in January.



At parade functions, such as the Fourth of July, the review of the Mass. Military Academy, Patriots Day and others, the Sergeants are there in a body. At the funeral of each Ancient who passes away during their year, the Sergeants also attend as part of the Honor Guard.

At the graduation ceremonies of the Mass. Military Academy, the Sergeants make a gift of a dress uniform to the "outstanding cadet."

All regular meetings of the Company will witness the Sergeants at their traditional places along the walls of the Armory, assisting wherever possible. Should either Lieutenant be unable to take his position in front of the Company, the First Sergeant assumes a place at the Captain's table.

The Sergeants have their own Quarters with lockers at the far right of the Armory and this area is "off limits" to all non-officer personnel except these twelve men.

It would be a conservative guess that the Sergeants during any typical year would meet independently at least twenty-five times for their deliberations.

This Yearbook you are reading is a major project of the Sergeants and entails many, many hours of work and planning.

As the Sergeants assemble around the "Drumhead" to count the ballots for the election of new Officers, there is naturally a healthy mixture of relief, nostalgia, and pride. And, of course, close comradeship with each other. Here are twelve men of diverse backgrounds, military service, occupations, and inclinations who, over twelve months, develop into a close-knit, cohesive unit, each man contributing as he can.

Most men wouldn't take the job again for a million dollars . . . or trade the experience for two million dollars.

FROM THE SERGEANTS

Time passes, but for the Sergeants 1979-80 the year flew. It seems only yesterday we were filled with the excitement of planning June Day festivities and now another June Day is fast upon us and twelve replacements are waiting in the wing.

The inspiration and support you so freely gave sparked us with enthusiasm and motivated us to present the golf outing at the Colonial—the Bon Voyage at the '57—the fabulous barbecue in San Juan—the Las Vegas dinner dance at Lombardos—Toys for Tots—our farewell golf day at the Colonial. These events will long be cherished because of your encouragement and participation.

We are truly filled with mixed emotions as our year draws to an end. We have learned not only what it is to be an Ancient, but have experienced what it is to be a Sergeant. We have received much pleasure in serving so worthy a membership.

Dear Fellow Ancients,

We would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your continued support, loyalty and congeniality throughout the year.

You have exemplified the spirit of the Ancients and made us proud to be a part of this great Company.

Being a Sergeant is a difficult undertaking, but your encouragement, comradery and the new friendships make it all worthwhile.

Our sincerest good wishes to Captain-Elect Barry Driscoll, his Staff, and the Sergeants 1980-81 for a most successful year.

The big ships of Operation Sail are steel vessels of this century. They have come from around the world just as they once did, and the smaller vessels in the fleet, the barkentines and the schooners, have come from up and down the coast, just as they once did.

It is all, in its way, as it once was, a harbor full of sails and spars, a wonder and a real remembrance of our maritime heritage. A real remembrance because these are real ships, driven by wind and brought across the oceans by the skull and muscle of young men who worked these vessels just as their forefathers did.

And although the ships of Operation Sail carry a cargo of good will and good prospects for the world's maritime future, lighter and subtler stuff than grains or hides, the ships are the same, and the work is the same hard work.

When the winds blow fair all sail is set and trimmed for maximum power. When the glass drops and the fury of a storm bursts upon the ship, sail is shortened by degrees and trimmed to match the course. "For what is the array of the strongest ropes, the tallest spars, and the stoutest canvas against the mighty breath of the infinite but thistle stalks, cobwebs and gossamer?" in Joseph Conrad's phrase.

Twenty Years of Passive Solar Experience

The first Deck House built nearly 20 years ago incorporated many of the basic passive solar gain features so talked about today - generous roof overhangs, careful site orientation, south-facing glass, and individualized plans. Expressed in fine natural woods, a Deck House can be designed to capture solar gain as well as the beauty of your building site.

These features can be seen at the Model House at Stoney Gate in Carlisle, Massachusetts. For information or directions call 369-7000.

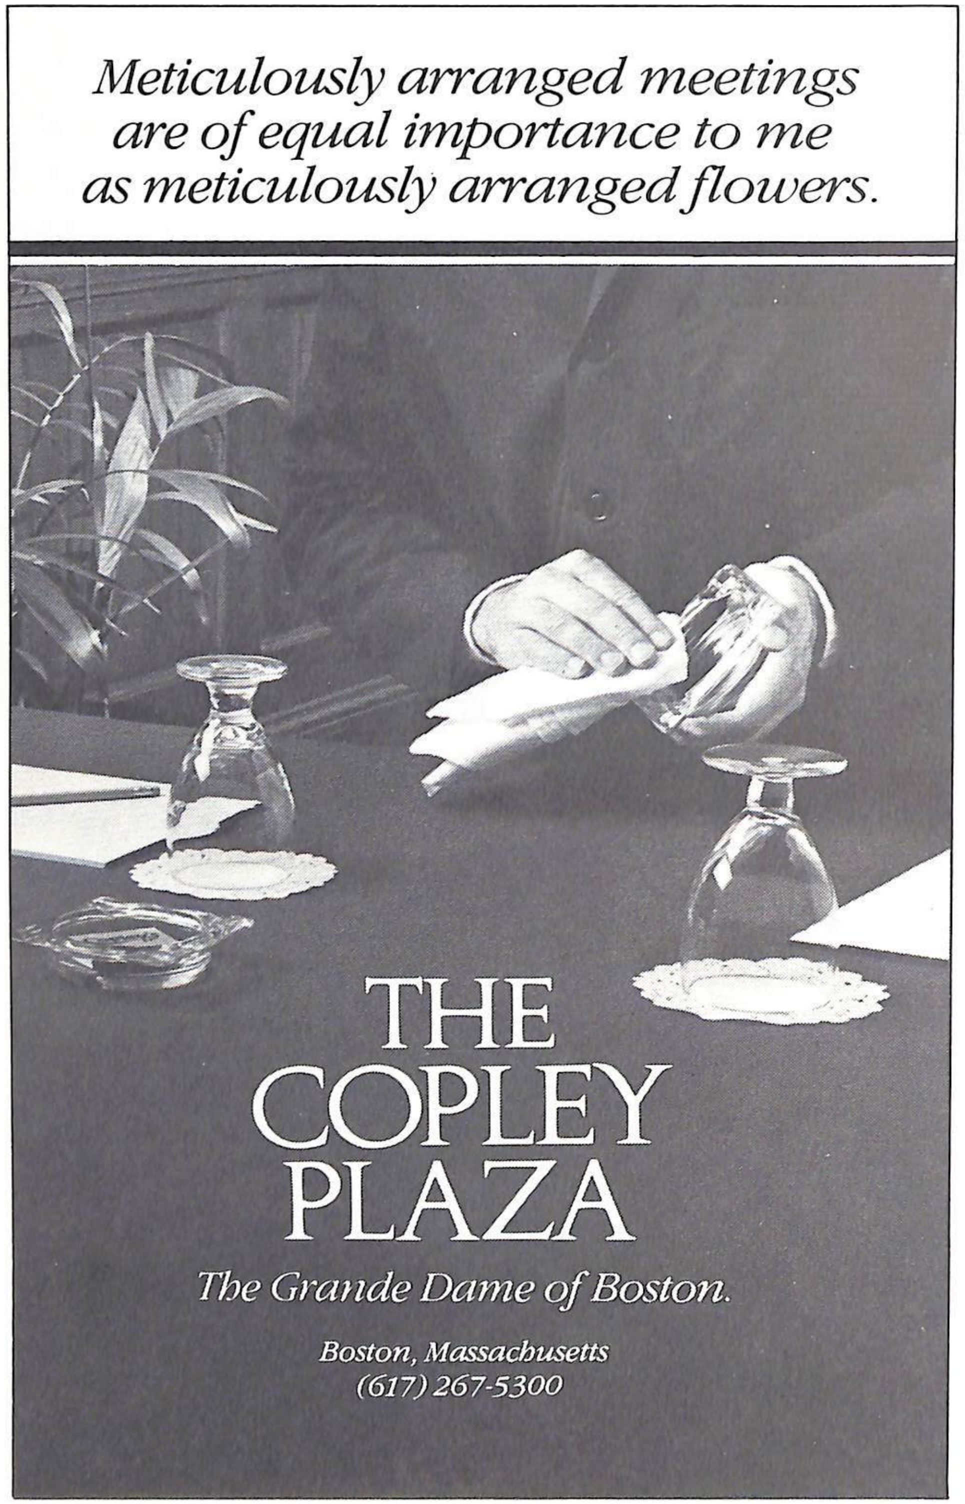
P. E. MURRAY FUNERAL SERVICE

2000 CENTRE ST. • 325-2000 • WEST ROXBURY
512 CENTRE STREET, JAMAICA PLAIN

John Masefield, England's late poet laureate, former sailor and cadet. Tribute to Op Sail '64 and its patron President Kennedy.

Here, by the towers of your splendid town,
Ship after ship, the Racers will come in,
Their colours going up and their sails down,
As welcomes to America begin,
The sirens will all bellow and make din
And all bells beat, in thunder ovation,
As, one by one, each Racer, each a Queen,
Arrives, salutes the EAGLE and takes station,
One beauty more in all the lovely scene,
The grand scene, of the ships that have made good
Their path across the sea by hardihood.

Ah, would that he who helped to plan this test
Of manhood on the sea, were he with us still.
Watching with us, the ending of the quest,
As men and ships their destinies fulfill.
He whom America in desolation
Now mourns, from sea to sea; but he has gone
A Nation's memory and veneration,
Among the radiant, ever venturing on,
Somewhere, with morning, such spirits will.



Meticulously arranged meetings are of equal importance to me as meticulously arranged flowers.

LIBERTAD – Argentina (full rigged ship) — This full rigged steel ship made her maiden voyage in 1960 and she caused all to wonder at her size and beauty. With a flush deck and small bridge and pilothouse structure forward of amidships, the new ship has a remarkably modern look. A funnel placed between her main and mizzen mast adds to this impression. She has a complement of 351 that includes 24 officers, 39 engineering cadets and 49 deck cadets as well as 239 petty officers and crew. Her 3,765 tons displacement makes her one of the world's largest sailing vessels.

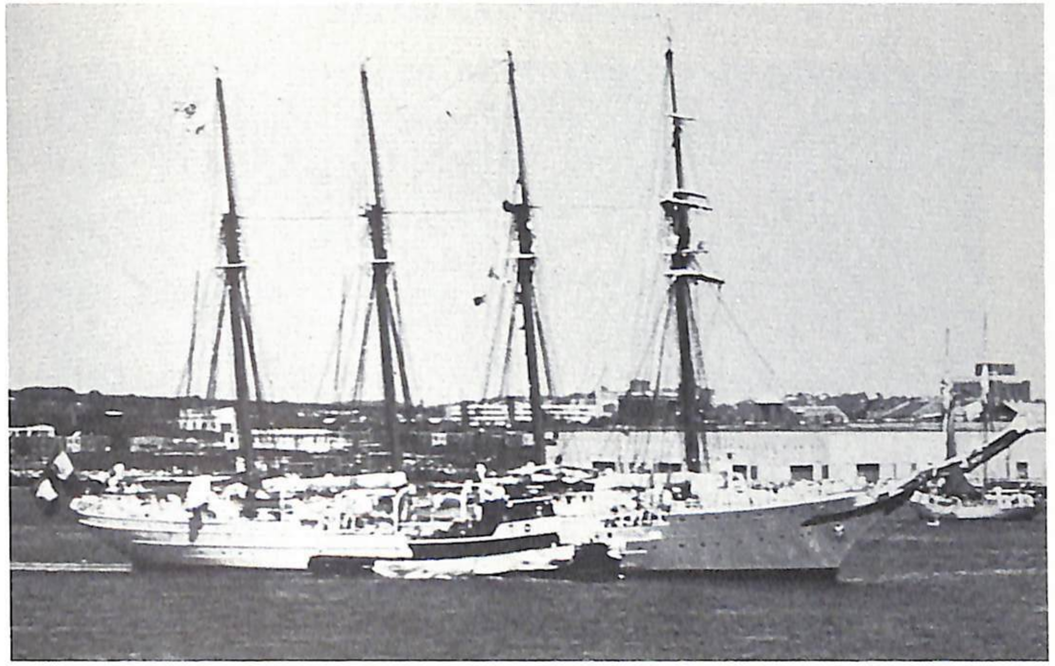
John Polcari, Jr.



"Why is a sailing-ship so beautiful? She is only masts and yards, and sails and hull — a steel hull and steel masts, and sails sewn from canvas. A bolt of canvas is not beautiful, nor is a gaunt steel yard lying in a dock; steel plates to rivet on to a ship's side are bare and ugly. Yet this creation from them all has a queer beauty which appeals to all who see it — the Baronesa's firemen no less than the Harmonides' master, the passengers of steamships and the dwellers of the shore."

DANMARK – Denmark (full rigged ship) — One of the world's most famous which has served both Denmark and the United States. Built as a merchant marine officer training ship. She came to New York World's Fair in 1939 and she remained here until the US entered World War II at which time her captain offered her services to President Roosevelt. In the war years she sailed out of New London as a Coast Guard training vessel and 5,000 cadets served aboard her. She returned to Denmark in 1945 and in 1959 was extensively refitted.

Op Sail '56

The age of the sailing ship filled every sea with sail by the middle of the last century and then declined steadily. In 1956 Europe's square-rigged schoolships and a dozen yachts manned by sea cadets gathered at Dartmouth, England, then raced from Torbay to Lisbon under the sponsorship of the Sail Training Association of England. This was the spectacular beginning for the gathering every two years of schoolships from many nations to promote international goodwill, to encourage the concept of training under sail, to share the excitement of an ocean race, and to bring back the grandeur of tall ships to ports where they had once been a common sight.

JUAN SEBASTIAN DE ELCANO – Named after the first Spaniard to circumnavigate the globe, this four-masted topsail schooner is a steel vessel built in 1927. She carries the original schooner rig with gaffs being hoisted and lowered, and with mast hoops on the luffs of her sails. This is one of the few great training ships ever to sail entirely around the world. She carries 243 officers and 89 cadets. Her figurehead is that of a female figure bearing a crown. Her 20-sail rig includes five headsails, a foresail, double topsails, single topgallant, gaff sail, and gaff topsail on her foremast. On her other masts she sets a topgallant, gaff topsail, and gaff sail. All her four masts are of equal height rising 160 feet above the waterline.

Cpt. Jack P. Ricciardi

From: Captain D. Schwartz, Jr.
To: Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, Massachusetts

During the Christmas of 1979, some 100,00 needy children received toys through the Toy for Tots Program. This would not have been possible without your dedicated support to the program. We, the Marines, would like to thank each and every member of your Company for helping us live up to our slogan, Semper Fi. Sadness is our enemy during the Christmas season. Fortunately, we were able to place smiles on many sad faces this year, due to your concerned interest and generosity. The children of today will soon be the defenders of our great nation in which much heartache will be encountered. Our hope is that they smile and feel the warmth of this great nation as children.

Once again, thank you ever so much for your support, and may God Bless each and every member of your Company.

Honest men esteem and value nothing so much in this world as a real friend. Such a one is as it were another self, to whom we impart our most secret thoughts, who partakes of our joy, and comforts us in our affliction; add to this, that his company is an everlasting pleasure to us.
